

Michael O Chaney

Profile

Mike Chaney recently retired from Procter & Gamble after 38 years of service. His role over the last decade was Vice President Product Supply for Global Grooming category which represents about 12-15% of the P&G company. He oversaw all of product supply for Gillette, Venus, Braun and the Art of Shaving. This included 17 plants and 5 technical centers located around the world serving over 140 countries. The product supply function includes manufacturing, procurement, engineering, quality assurance and supply chain design and management. He was also an active sponsor of various Affinity groups including the Boston Women's Network, African Ancestry Group, and Boston Based veterans and reserves.

During his tenure with Procter & Gamble, Mike has held a variety of leadership positions across the company's divisions, brands, and regions. Mike joined P&G in 1981 in R&D and moved through various engineering, manufacturing and Product Supply assignments in multiple businesses including Food & Beverage, Health Care, Baby Care, Beauty Care and Grooming.

Mike has always stayed engaged in the community throughout his career through United Way, Habitat for Humanity, supporting various schools, and churches. He is married (38+ years to Kathy) and has two sons, one daughter, two Daughter in laws, and five Grandchildren.

Education

Rose-Hulman Institute for Technology - BS Chemical Engineering 1981

Career History

1981-2002 Various R&D & Product Supply roles in Fabric Care, Food & Beverages, Corporate

2002 Director Global Food & Beverage Product Supply

2003 Director Global Health Care Product Supply

2005 Director Global Baby Care Product Supply

2007 Vice President Global Baby Care and Assembled Products

2009 Vice President Global Grooming Product Supply

Affiliations:

2016-2019 United Way of Massachusetts Bay and Merrimack Valley Board of Directors

2015-2018 MIT Center of Transportation and Logistics Board Member

2014-2017 MIT Center for Product Supply Innovation Board Member